Have you noticed anything about these cold winter days? I have: the sun is rising a little earlier and setting a little later, bringing the hope that spring is just around the corner now! And with a little more exposure to the sun, our days are almost imperceptibly getting warmer. Oh, we take a dip now and then, as we get blasted by those frigid northern winds once in awhile. But invariably they are followed by those softer breezes flowing up from the Gulf that move us closer to the greening of the trees and plants. I wish spiritual reawakenings were as seasonal and as predictable as the awakening from winter. But maybe they could be--with just a little more exposure to the Son each day! Personal devotional time, Bible study, prayer time--alone and with others--and gathering with others to celebrate Jesus all bring us into a deeper relationship with

Before you know it, there is a genuine sense of God's presence everywhere you go! Which is why the father of lies works twice as hard to put a chill on our relationship with the Lord when he sees things warming up in our relationship with others. We need to be aware of the source of those chilling attacks when they come, and learn how to counter attack effectively so that this season of spiritual awakening is not thwarted. Thanks for your prayers for the body of Christ and for the nation!
