The remembrance of Good Friday and the celebration of Resurrection Sunday should be the most significant event of the Christian calendar, and the one time that the Church should find the greatest sense of unity. It is the one event that separates Christianity from all other religions. In what other religion does God Himself take on the sins of mankind and pays for them so that mankind can be reconciled to Him? In every other faith, mankind is required to live according to certain rules and standards in order to earn his way into their version of heaven. Even then, no one is confident that he has met the standard for entrance into eternal bliss. It was reported that on his death bed, the Muslim prophet, Muhammed, wondered if he had done enough to secure his place there. What a terrifying way to live! I am so grateful that God has given us the assurance that "if we have the Son, we have life.

If we do not have the Son of God, we do not have [eternal] life (1 John 5:11-12)." This life is given to us without cost to us. But it gives us a whole new reason to serve God: we serve out of gratitude, not out of a desire to earn heaven. Unfortunately, there are still a lot of people--even in the church--who have bought the lie that we have to work to earn our place in heaven. If that was the case, why in the world would Jesus have had to go through what He did? No, we are free because He bought us! And that is why we celebrate Resurrection Sunday!
