

Prayer Calendar September 2026

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Even as school activities ramp up for the fall, this season is often a time of reflection for many. Weekend getaways provide a time of review--especially if the vivid colors of autumn leaves are a part of that getaway. With the chaos of our out-of-control economy, the divisiveness created by our no-holds-barred politics, and the threats to our constitutional way of life, a little respite is necessary to bring balance to our souls. But that balance won't last long if we do not acknowledge that our Nation is under attack. "Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain (Psalm 127:1b)." I used to have a jaded view of J. Edgar Hoover's 'extreme' focus on rooting out Communists from the political and social media realms in the '40's & '50's, but as I see how Socialism is growing in popularity among young Americans--to the point that they have gained ground in the Mid-term primaries and are threatening the Constitution itself--I am beginning to realize the perceptiveness of J. Edgar as he fought to protect our Constitution from its numerous domestic enemies.
