we are still faced with the dilemma of an upcoming mid-term election, where we are expected to make informed decisions on our ballots based, not upon the facts themselves (which are often skewed by the media), but upon the opinions of media personalities, who present their perceptions as facts. With life coming at us so fast, and the inundation of so much information threatening to overwhelm us, we are in danger of having nonsense take over our common sense. This nonsense even seeks to encroach upon my quiet time with the Lord. What a battle! It was helpful, then, to find tucked away in Isaiah 55:6 that little reminder: "Seek the Lord while He may be found; call upon Him while He is near." God has the answer: Jesus is the Answer!
