Prayer Calendar November 2026

I realize that this might not be the appropriate month for introducing the subject of fasting--what with Thanksgiving approaching--but with the mid-term elections upon us, it might not be a bad time to check our heart and beseech God to restore us to One Nation Under God. The idea of fasting has become an archaic practice that we fail to implement as believers; yet, I believe it has its place in the life of the believer. But it is not to be used merely for show: God had an admonition for the Israelites, whose religious practices did not match their hearts. In Isaiah 58, God chastened them for going through the motions: they supposedly humbled themselves, bowed down like a reed, and spread sackcloth and ashes under themselves to invoke God's blessing (v.5); yet they did not hear from God. The problem was that they were "[seeking their] own pleasure, and [oppressing] all [their] own workers (v. 3b)," among other unacceptable behaviors. In contrast, God's idea of a fast included breaking free from our bondage to sinful behavior, and using our resources
